GENERAL RULES FOR SUBMISSIONS

1. Receipt of abstracts from January 18 to May 20, 2020.
 2. The papers must be original, not having been presented at another academic meeting or published.
 3. The communications must follow the topics of the Congress, whether the results of the field research or essays are qualitative and/or quantitative.
 4. The communications will have two forms of presentation: oral and poster.
 5. The authors will receive a confirmation email stating that their communication has been received. This does NOT mean that the communication has been accepted.
 6. The acceptance of communications is subject to the opinion of the Scientific Committee, as well as the form of presentation (oral or poster), which will be communicated to the authors as soon as possible.
 7. The authors of oral communications that are accepted as posters must confirm their willingness to participate in this modality.
 8. The same author may only participate in a maximum of five communications in any of the aforementioned modalities, with the possibility of being first author in only two communications.
- Only the first author and the co-authors who are registered in the congress will be given a certificate.

The authors of accepted papers, who previously authorize it, may publish their extensive communication in the Proceedings of the Congress.
